

A TYPICAL FRENCH GAME

This game is usually played by dumb people. In fact, it is one of our games, and we would rather remain anonymous. We named it :
VIRTUAL TENNIS COURT.

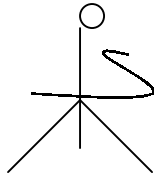

All you need :
_no playstation
_no rackets
_no ball
_no court, no ground

YOU JUST NEED : two fingers (it is better if they are yours) to click fingers noisily.

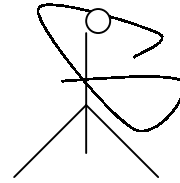

THE RULES :

- It is totally forbidden to use another hand than the right one (if you are left-handed please make an effort. Too bad for you !).
- The taller person starts the game (there is no point arguing that are the fair rules !).
- Here the basic tricks :

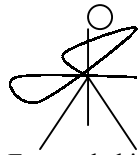

(how to serve)

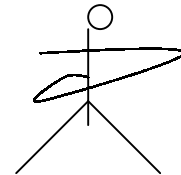

(how to smash)

(forehand)

(backhand)

Free style kicks are ALLOWED : it is up to you !

- When you get used to game, you can try the rules for experts.
OUR ADVICE : you can try but they are only for experts, you know !
Do not overestimate your capacities !

In fact, there is intensity in kicks :

The louder the knock is, the faster the ball would be though :

- Ø a little noise stands for killing the ball
- Ø a normal one represents a normal kick
- Ø a big noise means a smash.

- THE END happens when one of the guys gets bored of the game (for rookies and those who are scared of looking dumb).
